

THE CAROUSEL REVUE

OCTOBER 2025

GET INVOLVED WITH CAROUSEL!

Love theatre but not looking for the spotlight?

We have so many ways for you to get involved behind the scenes! We're looking for passionate volunteers to help with community events that keep Carousel Theatre top of mind — and we're currently seeking a director for our upcoming production of *The Underpants!

You can apply for that role here.

Whether you're a theatre lover or just love being part of the community, there's a place for you at Carousel!

HELP US BUILD A STAGE
WORTHY OF THE SPOTLIGHT

For over 60 years, Carousel Theatre has brought live theatre, music, and arts education to Indianola — all run by passionate volunteers who care about our mission.

Now, we are working to secure a vibrant future with a permanent home in the heart of downtown.

Our Capital Campaign will fund a cultural arts center and create an endowment to support the next 60 years of creativity, connection, and community impact.

You can help — through donations, estate gifts, or volunteering.

Let's build a lasting legacy for the arts — together.

ALMOST, MAINE

By: John Cariani

Almost, Maine is a romantic comedy composed of nine short vignettes, all set in the fictional, remote town of Almost, Maine, on a cold, clear, moonlit winter night. As the northern lights hover in the star-filled sky above, the town's residents find themselves falling in and out of love in unexpected and magical ways. Each vignette explores a different aspect of love—new love, lost love, unrequited love, and the pain and joy that come with it—infused with quirky humor, tender emotion, and surreal twists. With its mix of whimsy and heart, Almost, Maine paints a portrait of love's many forms and how it touches even the unlikely of people in the most unexpected ways.
